

Everyday Champions Doubles Team in Whitby Tennis Club

July 22, 2009

On the evening of Friday, July 10th the 2009 Everyday Champions Doubles Team, Brandon and Jen, attended the Whitby Tennis Club Family BBQ. "It was a terrific evening for the 200 attendees," said Sue Fisher, one of the event organizers, who was delighted so many people were able to come out and enjoy the beautiful weather, the barbeque, milk samples, and the tennis activities for all ages. The event was so much fun that two representatives from the local newspapers, Whitby This Week and Snap, even made an appearance. Located at the entrance to the tennis courts, Brandon and Jen were a huge success with the kids (and even some of the adults) who were delighted to try their hand at playing the Everyday Champions challenger game.

One of the most exciting activities to take place that evening was the "Beat the Executive Challenge". Upon the request of the Whitby Tennis Club Brandon and Jen agreed to join the Executive Team and take on local challengers. "They represented the Executive Team very well!" said Setsuko Pye the local Whitby Everyday Champion.

Setsuko was nominated to be an Everyday Champion because her generosity in time and spirit were unparalleled in the Whitby Tennis Community. One of the individuals who nominated her went as far as saying, "Hands down, she is my role model when it comes to her devotion to tennis, volunteering and a healthy lifestyle!"

Setsuko first became interested in tennis when her kids began taking tennis lessons. "I finally worked up the courage to join and take lessons at the age of 42," said Setsuko, "and I have been hooked for 8 years now! Everyone made such a big fuss over me, as the club's Everyday Champion. I thank you for this acknowledgement. It has been so much fun!"

The logo for 'Everyday Champions' features the word 'everyday' in a blue, lowercase, sans-serif font with a green tennis racket head integrated into the letter 'y'. Below it, the word 'champions' is written in a larger, bold, blue, lowercase, sans-serif font.
